Turning Women On Using SSP +
Becoming Super Desirable

(Volume 2)

Here is your chance to spy on some of the 'actual' emails that CR James received for his Reports. Many of the reports can be purchased at SuperPowerMedia.com

You can learn about their experience.

Basically, I think Action Takers should be celebrated. Obviously, these guys believe it is possible to get better at things.

Communicating in LEVELS of Communication

From: maple syrup <\*\*\*\*\*@hotmail.com>

Wow, what a relief it was reading your guidebook on "Levels of Communication." I discovered almost immediately that I, a man, naturally tend to communicate in the way you ascribed to women--indirectly and interpretively.

This explains a lot about why friends who've tended to annoy me by being too obtuse also tended to have more problems communicating with women than men. It also explains why I've always felt uneasy about communicating too directly, and tend to try to figure out what someone means and where their viewpoint comes from. It's such a pity that I've been in a thoroughly male-dominated field ever since junior high school. Thank you so much for ever so slightly increasing my confidence that women will know what I mean.

Subject: Lost e-books please help

Dear CR James,

I just finished reading SUPER SEX POWER: MAGNETISM having downloaded it last week. Unfortunately I lost the other texts bundled into the offer on your website after my computer motherboard failed. I had only printed out the main book.

Can you help?

I also want to say thank you for taking the time to right a book about seducing long term partners. A lot of what you wrote rings true and I am already beginning to see my wife warm towards me for the first time in years. I thank God that someone has recognised that seducing long term partners is a very different game to picking up random women! By the way, I was very skeptical that your testimonials were from bona fide readers, but now I am one of them, I guess I was right to trust you. God bless. (And please can I have the rest of the texts I paid for!)

This guy thinks SSP should be taught in grade school. LOL

“being in a relationship (MARRIAGE) for a while is where real skills are needed”

CR James,

Man, your books should be the basic knowledge that all boys are taught in grade school! I wanted to take the time out to thank you for knowledge that doesn't just tell you how to get women, laid, etc., but actually IMPROVE YOURSELF! I know it's long (5 paragraphs to be exact), but there's so many good points that I had to tell you my success story so far so that it may help anyone else out as well. If you need any more details to help anyone out, let me know.

To sum my progress all up, I have been married for 3 years to a beautiful petite super-smart, black but exotic looking 5ft 2in 110 pound wife that used to model and everyone even Ministers in our church (I'm employed there) says she should model (or women hate on her because she's got it like that *LOL*). Anyway, she's as humble and down with guy stuff as it gets, but what happened was the sex was off the charts in the beginning, but I got LAZY and into WUSSVILLE (didn't know it then) and all of a sudden the sex barely happened and I was getting good excuses (like she would always be busy or tired in some form or fashion, etc.). Keep in mind that both her and I were master players and had our friends wanted to pimp like us because they thought we would be the last ones to settle down the way we had it before we hooked up. Now I have bought and read your books since June 24th this year (wife knows I bought and downloaded something, but I told her it was just some men stuff to make me a better man), and I know your information was a God send, but I was having trouble reprogramming myself to send the right signals all of the time. I was willing to change, but like you said, it was hard as crap to do so! The patience part is where the struggle is. It seems like what you are doing isn't working, but it just takes a LONG WHILE to build the sexual tension, value, etc. points to the level where she will act on it consistently. Dating and getting some consistently is easy, but being in a relationship (MARRIAGE) for a while is where real skills are needed.

After reading SSP_1 007 (Magnetism) along with lust buttons, married women are easier to seduce, etc several times (at work and at home *LOL*), it finally clicked yesterday and the I DIDN'T EVEN REALIZE I WAS SENDING THEM anti-seductive signals ceased to exist and I was sending ONSLAUGHTS OF THE RIGHT SIGNALS! I was frustrated so long with not getting the sex that I was used to from her that I was projecting those signals without even knowing it, so she wasn't even open to approaching me sexually (hence anti-seductive signals) no matter what right signals I sent. It finally became natural for me to think about directing her mind state and making her happy instead of me trying to manipulate her by doing things to get blown and laid out (pun intended) *LOL*.

Here's the juicy part: I was using her level of communication to flirt like crazy with her on the phone during lunch break (it wouldn't work so well before because of my anti-seductive signals), so when I got home, she had this look in her eyes like he's my MFM when she greeted me. I was [doing something powerful]

As soon as she cleaned the table off, she came over to me, and lets say talk about sexually intense, I thought I was in the middle of a porn being filmed!

I finally brought out that nymph in her that I once knew and I didn't make my looks at her obvious or moan, so she kept getting into it more and more trying to get my attention!!!

About 3/4s way into the sex, she says, now did I get your attention. I told her yeah, and then made her beg for my love rod (she actually begged OUT LOUD for my love rod!!!!!!!!) by only putting the tip in after she had the whole thing while she was riding me, etc. When I felt the begging was acceptable, I slid it all the way in and I gave it to her from the back like she was on punishment and she couldn't pull away because we were on the couch! When we were done, I told her in her ear [something powerful]

...she is so fine, beautiful, and I love her.

Normally, she would say I love you too, but she told me she loves my love rod!!!

I got her!

This is the Rated PG version of what happened by the way *LOL*.

The last part: When I [did something powerful] she was glowing like no tomorrow, and had that I'm going to screw your brains out when I get home from work look in her eyes that she had yesterday when I came home. I think this [a particular SSP concept] where you can gain a TON of sexual value points.

I heard the arcade noises both after I tore her up before we went to the movies last night, and when I walked her out to her car this morning. That INTENSE look in her eyes is PRICELESS!

Thanks CR!!!!

P.S. Just have faith and patience that if you stopped your anti-seductive signals and are sending the right signals, the sexual tension will be building in her no matter if it seems like she'll never act on them.

Don't wuss out by showing that this waiting is bothering you and I promise you, when she puts it on you sexually, the wait will be well worth it!!!!

Guy sees why many men out there are frustrated

I am deeper into the ***** piece and find it brilliant. My congratulations to the author and all involved. I can't wait to devour the whole assemblage of items in your package. My immediate impression on perusing the material is that it is no wonder that most men are so inept and frustrated with women. As with anything, it pays to know how things work and what you're doing.

Peace, Brian

Customer sees the monetary value in learning how to be more powerful with women

Thank you again!

Wow, man, you sure do give abundant value for the money you ask in return. I am very impressed. I am a professional writer and have been for many years, and I know what it takes to put things together as you have done. Although I am only into your ***** so far, it is excellent, and I haven't begun to explore the remaining plethora of material.

Because I think you are at a place where you might appreciate the attached items, I am sending them to you. They are some recent discoveries of mine that I find superb. Perhaps they are "old hat" to you, but, as they say, "nothing ventured..."

Just let me know.

Blessings, good

Yikes: Lady exposes the “nasty facts” of what her Clueless Man was actually doing in the Bedroom

Date: Fri, 13 May 2005 23:59:51 +0200
From: "Kirsti"

Thank you for answering so quickly!

You asked me what I think the biggest issue is... I wish I knew! But some of it, I think, is that when he is horny, and I'm KIND OF in the mood, he advances too fast to “pussy and tits”, if you know what I mean... That is not “where” I get horny! I want to feel that he is a man, that he is confident. I want him to SEE me, to listen when I moan, and understand what he does to make me moan...

I've told him this two or three times, but he seems to remember for one night only. Sorry, I feel like I'm blaming him for everything and taking nothing of the blame myself. But I've ransacked my mind so many times to understand why I don't get turned on by him as easily as he gets turned on by me, and I can't find any answers. He is beautiful like a model, everything “looks right”. =)

But his sexual self-confidence seems to get stuck in a dead-end-road when I don't give him confirmation, when I don't respond positively to his sexual advances towards me. He seems to take less and less notice of the signals I try to send him... Maybe I'm too subtle, I am a bit “embarrassed” of my sexuality, maybe because of the way I was raised; sexual things was not to talk about.

Maybe, maybe...

I talk of a dead-end-road. I mean porn in particular. I really like porn myself, and like watching hard core films, like him. He loves it, and loves that I like it, he says he feels lucky in comparison to his friends, their girls don't like porn. But sometimes it seems to me that he gets too much “inspiration” from porn, after all, it's not like the real thing... Things (fucking) get too stressed, and he fucks me fast (oh God, that's good!!!), but then he gets too horny, and stops to keep from coming. I'm on the brink of coming, but he never listens to my sounds, and he thinks he has to fuck me for at least fifteen minutes for it to be “successful”. I told him this a few times, but the message doesn't seem to come through. I don't want to “complain” every time we have sex, either...

So, there you go, a few of my thoughts. Maybe confused, but that's what I am. Hugs, K=)

I feel uncomfortable with this "power" because it sets me ahead of my male friends. This is intimate stuff, and they (like most guys) suck at it. Will guys abandon friendship with me or what? What has been your experience, given I am not going to be as graphic as your descriptions.

“interesting and powerful”

James,

I am reading your materials that it is interesting and powerful because it really the same things happened to me but I was badly fell in love until losing my security and identity.

“...normally she wants me out as soon as both of us have cum but last night she just wanted to keep going”

CR I use a Fancy Windows NT edition from micros soft on a lap top my employer has loaned me. It has a text to speech function on it that comes in handy when I want to read/absorb something while not being stuck to the computer.

It allowed me to listen to most of the magnetism book today while doing odds and ends around the house today. Have you considered putting this into audio format for those who would do better listening or even something interactive like an educational board game. (Like Robert Kiyosaki's Cash Flow board game) Being an outside the box teacher you probably know that there are several levels of learning and reading and wrote memorization are the slowest forms. (Hell, Kiyosaki might underwrite the whole thing if he reviewed your book. He says he's always putting money into projects that are winners. and your information is definitely a winner.)

I did make the mistake of trying to read some of the special information that came along with the download first because they were smaller files. That was a mistake. (You may want to warn people to read things in order. At first I thought you were being way too shallow and I felt you were giving examples that were too vague and in a non-measurable form. What I now understand is everything is built off of the information in the magnetism book.

Silly me.

Now that all that is said I would like to start over. I am thoroughly impressed with your work.

You do a great job fishing out principles and then apply easy to use examples. I of course will need to re-read the magnetism book several times and start practicing while I go. While I got bits and pieces throughout the week I really got a bigger picture this weekend. Thanks. Of course while going through all of this I was slapped silly over and over again by some of those descriptions of anti-seductive behaviors and personalities. Then I was equally built up several times over for some of the things I've done right. Wow what a roller coaster.

Anyway I have spent the last three days looking for some of the things I may need to eliminate and some of the things I need to work on. (In my behavior/speech patterns) One of the things I've been missing was my wife has started a job that is an hour and a half away. On top of that she works 12pm-8pm and she has responsibilities that keep her after hours.

Well I had been griping that she needed to get home as soon as possible for the past two weeks. But, I had not given her any compliments for handling the work, traveling so much or being away from home. I decided to do just that. Well, She dragged herself in around 1:30am and I was sleeping off and on since at least 12. I woke up enough to welcome her home tell her I loved her and as I climbed back into bed to fall back asleep I said something like, "I just want to say that you're doing a great job, handling everything at work and commuting and other things". I can't say it was the comment I said or what, but 20 minutes later she was "waking me up"! Sleep be damned I was wide awake, and she was hotter than she'd been in many many sexual encounters. normally she wants me out as soon as both of us have cum but last night she just wanted to keep going.

She actually apologized.....

Which maybe, but she didn't try that last month or the month before and so on. Impressive! I'll keep you posted as things pick up.

Lady from Norway is tired of taking Libido Pills. LOL
(I think she realizes that there is nothing wrong with her at all (gasp))

First of all, thank you for having a different perspective on this subject than 'everyone else!' I am a woman of 27 yrs, from Norway. I have lived with my wonderful boyfriend for 5 yrs. I just bought the book for him. I haven't read the book myself, and I don't intend to.

I was kind of encouraged when you emphasized several times (in the e-add) that the man shouldn't let his woman think there is something wrong with her, if she doesn't get turned on. We had storming, hot sex for the first year or so, but since then things have been miserable... I rarely get turned on, and I have started thinking there is something seriously wrong in my head. I get physically aroused, but not mentally. I can be "wet", but still not want to have sex with him. I started doubting my feelings: Do I really love him? And the answer is: YES!!! So what's the deal??

We've talked about this to boredom, but not much has changed. I think we've both reached the conclusion that I don't have that strong a libido (as he does, or at all). This seems a bit strange to me, though, since I see myself as a sensual and sexy lady(lol). He thinks I'm sexy, and tells me all the time (too often in bed, when I get "afraid" of him approaching me sexually...).

I really hope you can teach him some tricks, 'cause I've run out of pills to take. ;)

Subject: States of Mind examples

Hi CR

I have been reading everything you've written with great enjoyment. I am starting to see limited results with my wife but still have a ways to go. I've really enjoyed SSP and the Lust Signals series. I was wondering if you've written anything more on States of Mind where women crave sex. like the few examples you had in SSP....

“Your perceptive powers about these matter are incredible”

Mr. James

Your perceptive powers about these matter are incredible. Regarding my last e-mail and based on your experience, is there any way I can get my wife to admit if she is telling me the truth?

Thanks!

“It really works because I don't believe I've ever been turned down”

Thanks James,

Really appreciate the response and info. I've been reading the part of MFM and I find it so much along my line of thoughts and observations since I've been married these past 12 years.

Like you I have been obsessive about how I can make my wife want me and desire me more often and I totally agree with the persona thing, health, and creating the right atmosphere, etc. It really works because I don't believe I've ever been turned down unless she was on her period, had the flu, etc., she really is a great partner for me I mean we have sex on an average of 1/day, seriously I not trying to brag, but maybe some couples have it more often...I don't really know. It's what I've watched and learned about her and it is true when these things are clicking she becomes more mentally in "the mood" to have sex.

Despite all this knowledge and just trying to analyze how I can be a better lover and all, as well as how I can get my wife to initiate sex more, I noticed that my wife seems to respond and is more sexually turned on not by a certain type of MFM....

I've noticed how she loses her personality whenever she's around them and how she becomes somewhat of a different person, complete with that certain "glow" you talk about.

Thanks!

Exposed: Female SSP Customer is disgusted at what her boyfriend does during sex

Hi Mr. James,

I actually bought this for my boyfriend because honestly I care about him but he does not inspire me.

Our sex life has gotten to the point where I go to bed before he does and masturbate and he will wait and then come in (when he thinks i'm ready) and kiss me and touch me a little and then when I cum he gets on top and fucks me for a little and then rolls over on his back and waits for his blow-job. I can't tell you how miserable this is.

I noticed in one of your reports (I think the first one) then you mentioned something about a woman wanting you to wait a year for sex and how this indicated that there was past abuse and female problems. I hope you are not suggesting that this type of woman is useless.

I ..... until I was sixteen, does this mean that these techniques won't work on me?

Like I stated in the beginning I bought these for my boyfriend and I have read everything and it turns me on just reading it.

But he only read the first 1 or 2 pages and hasn't touched it since.

He of course blames me and basically the way he is that he wants me to turn myself on and then jump his bones and fuck him and do all the work.

HOW THRILLING!!!!!!

I only have sex with him at this point to save the relationship because we have a baby together. But to be honest I can't see myself spending the rest of my life like this. Do you have any suggestions on how to reach him and see that i want more and I am thrilled at the idea of him being able to get in my head and understand how I work. He just seems so lazy!! HELP!!!

Subject: Why I bought your ebook All headers

Hey CR, how are you doing my friend?

Well I have to tell you, if it weren't for the powerful information in your books, I would have returned it at the first sight of a grammatical mistake.

I mean come on man, your text editor should contain some kind of spell check function :) LOL

I kept correcting your grammatically incorrect sentences in my head just so I could keep reading it. Now I want you to know that I'm very picky about what I buy, in fact if I could get something from a friend and not buy it, I would certainly do that.

But with your material, you hooked me with the idea of sexual perception. As I read your free reports, I kept wondering "how do I get perceived as a highly sexual male?" which is exactly where you wanted me :) I've been studying persuasion for the past 5 or 6 years, and have read a lot of garbage during that time, including stupid hypnotic language tricks that would instantly get the customers to salivate and buy your product.

(I'm sure you know who I'm referring to)

...I finally saw the real secret to persuasion. Given that his system is based heavily in perception, when I read your reports, it was like a breath of fresh air. I thought, hey this guy is on to something here.

Previous to that I used to think to seduce girls you had to know all these techniques, and learn these "patterns" and recite them to her to get her panties wet. Well, though I never actually tried it, I thought this was flawed somehow.

Your book delivers right on the money. In fact if it were better written (i.e. grammatically correct lol) it could be published and be made into a bestseller overnight as guys would simply recommend it to their friends and no advertising would be necessary. You could literally take the divorce industry out of business ;)

Today, I'm going to read your book again, in fact I printed all 163 pages of it, and I will take careful notes so I can start applying it.

Thanks again for writing this book. I believe it is going to change my life, as soon as I start reading it.

Subject: Question and help on love/hate relating to arguments

CR James,

I want to first thank you for your e-books. They helped me out tremendously.

Okay, let me paint a quick picture before I ask my question. I've been happily married to my lovely wife for over 3 years now. She is a drop dead, stop traffic literally, 5ft 2in, petite, in shape gym certified, black but exotic looking, ex-model (well she still does fitness modeling) who can't wear dresses and such that average looking women can wear in church (and I am very well known, respected, and employed in our church) or she'll get labeled as a sinner and a whore *LOL*.

Women (yes I said women), let alone me can't keep their eyes off of her in and out of church, and I am constantly told how pretty my wife is by female co-workers, etc.

She has to stay covered up with a jacket, or she'll draw too much attention to her both from men and women. Women always compliment her beauty when were out together.

She's also just as intelligent as she is gorgeous, can you say she'll have her MBA in a few months, successfully worked for a BIG 5 Accounting firm, and she already runs our home business (I'm the VP *lol*).

I just wanted to paint a good picture of how fine my wife is CR. I am very attractive, knowledgeable, and intelligent myself according to her and other women (they try get my attention in front of my wife everytime *LOL*).

We have a very faithful, happy, and communicative marriage where we can talk about anything, good or bad to each other.

Now, thanks to your e-books, I used to be the guy that could pull a fine woman with ease, and get to sleep with her (before my Christian walk began *LOL*), and that's how it was with my wife at first, but I am confident enough to admit that I didn't realize over the years that I began doing little annoying things that was killing my sexual value with her. At first I thought she was getting a low libido (but it was higher in the beginning), and I know our diet and a few other things were making matters worse. Since your e-books (been less than a month ago), I have recognized what I was doing and my sexual value has skyrocketed with her. Not only this, I foreplay with her mind at work all day long through e-mails, phone calls, our time at home, etc, communicating to her on HER level. I used to always wonder why a woman would come left field out of no where with things before and now thanks to levels of communication, I know how women think! Thank God! *LOL*.

does), and you got MAJORLY TURNED OFF and PISSED and told her she killed the mood in a cool manner, (we even started out watching a porn and she was very sexually intense the first round before we turned it off to take a break), then you UNCONSCIOUSLY out of your frustration or disappointment WUSS FACTOR :( rubbed it in by explaining how you felt when she asked you if everything was okay, and she still wants you to cuddle with her afterwards

(body language while sleeping and she lets you do it), and the next morning, you can tell that she is upset about what you said (whether you're right or not), but when you talk to her, I am getting the vibes that she is WAITING FOR ME TO PASS SOME MENTAL TEST of hers by saying or doing something..... because of my sexual value I can tell that she still is sexually attracted to me

(I THINK THAT'S IT, SHE STILL WANTS TO RIP MY CLOTHES OFF AND RAPE ME DEEP DOWN),

One last thing: The funny thing is I KNOW she feels the TENSION (sexually), because I EVEN FEEL THE TENSION AND WANT TO BANG HER OUT!

Thanks

Yes they are very interesting. I would like a copy and if there are any additional charges please let me know. Sorry for the goof-up. Usually I don't have this problem, but your messages and training are extremely interesting.

Thank you. It works!

You are a genius. Your book is very unique in the seduction realm. If I have questions about some of your theories where can I go?

“I love being better equipped to figuring out what's going on in a woman's head...”

Hello CR

Have a bone to pick with you.

Why the hell don't you market your book better??

just like to say that I wish I'd found your book years ago..

Also like to say I firmly believe it's something every bloke in the world ought to read..

Lemme tell you a bit about myself first.. I'm a 30 year-old aussie veterinarian with a fairly analytical, but also fairly creative, mind. I've always been a happy positive bloke with a lot of energy who makes people in general feel good about themselves. I have a strong family and some close mates within a wider circle of friends. I got married almost 3 years ago to my favourite person in the world, a girl called Jen who I'd met when i was 17 (she was 15).

We thought it was for life straight away, but we did have two year-plus -long breaks in our relationship due to circumstances/travel, which we hoped would allow us room to develop into the adults we needed to be to make it work.. Mate my life rocks, generally.

Personally I'm always looking for personal growth - you're either green and growing, or brown and dying I've read stacks of material on attitude, leadership, ambition, communication skills, personalities, the differences between men and women etc etc. Some of it has been very good, some very good in parts, some average, and some downright misleading and dangerous. So, I think my saying that I was blown away by your book has some external qualification. It's not like it's the first personal development book i've read. Your book and the supplements I've read have not only opened up a whole stack of new doors, but they've brought to the fore the cheeky side of my personality again, which had been lying under a log for a while and had started to get a bit pale and pasty...

I had what I thought was the best relationship in the world, until little cracks started to open up into big cracks about a year ago.. We'd been living in the UK for 2 years at the time, with a view to going home at the end of this year. A month ago I found out my wife and my best mate were seeing each other, and although I found your book on the internet (quite by accident whilst doing, would you believe, a search on bromide and libido-REDUCING supplements for myself!) about 6 mths ago, things were already too far gone to peg back completely. I made inroads however, and more importantly I grew as a person to the point where I have been able to understand and fully accept what has happened. I know I would have been in a different place now but for some insight into how women work... While there are more factors in our relationship than discussed in the material of yours that I have, I'm pretty sure we could have worked through them properly had I found your book earlier.. hey ho - that's the learning curve eh? (meeting so young etc.. although we saw some other people (both openly while together and while on breaks - partly because [she] got off on the idea of me being with other women), there was a lot of growing we had to do outside of a committed relationship.. I wonder whether you have any thoughts on this..? I think the 'soul-mate' concept was a factor however...)

So, perhaps your book hasn't saved a relationship this time (maybe it has - but it's a big maybe from my perspective), but it has definitely changed my life. I think it's fair to say there are a few girls with smiles they can't wipe off their faces thanks to you mate. I have loved to see changes in the way people are in general, but especially females, respond to me in everyday life. I'm getting to know what to expect now, but I have been amazed at the connection I've been able to develop with females, some in an incredibly short space of time (minutes in some cases - not that this is really important, but it is kinda exhilarating to meet someone and feel that connection so quickly). Whether it has led to sex or not has ceased to be that important, except for improving my game and figuring out where I may have done/said things differently to achieve a different result. I love being better equipped to figuring out what's going on in a woman's head (things even she doesn't know are going on) and watching (sometimes with frightening predictability) the responses to what I'm doing or saying... press this button, does this; press that button, does that... mmm wonder what happens if I press em both at once... ;)

If you've got any other material out since I purchased SSP, def interested - I'm sending a mate or two, and both my brothers, your way too. Dunno whether you've considered translating any of it, but my old man does freelance translating into both french and spanish! Seriously, the world needs this. but you knew this already...

Anyway, if you want an endorsement for your page or whatever, all I could say is this...Is your wife/girlfriend, or more importantly, *your* life, worth more than 40 bucks, or whatever CR charges for this? If not hit the little cross in the corner of your browser :)

thanks
again

CR James,

I found this book to be very insightful. There are many things that are obvious that I simply did not put to use. Deep down you know that to keep a woman happy you should keep her on her toes, but it is hard when you love them to not try to be as nice as possible. I almost fall into the category of PUSSY. That sucks.

Keep up the good work.

HELLO JAMES,

Very fascinating that you understand so well how a woman works I have a suspicion you are a woman or have been one before! :)

I am a therapist and your material has been very beneficial to my clients but I need help too!!

In a relationship that goes through some difficulty where the man then loses his sexual value, do you think he is able to regain it? Yes I am talking about my relationship. I seem to have so much of power over him that i sometimes find him pathetic. I am generally horny but I stop myself from giving in to his advances.

To the point now it has become a habit and I feel shy to give in!!!

Warmly,
CR James
